20. (Original) The system of claim 5, comprising means for the system evaluating whether a first set of payment guarantee criteria are met, and means for, if the first set of payment guarantee criteria are evaluated to be met, the system providing a payment guarantee to the seller to guarantee payment by the buyer in connection with the purchase order agreement.

21. (Original) The system of claim 20, wherein the first set of criteria comprises at least one of a credit exposure of the buyer being evaluated by the system to be within a specified maximum credit exposure, and the seller being evaluated by the system to have complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement.

22. (Original) The system of claim 5, wherein the means for electronically evaluating whether the seller has complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement comprises means for electronically evaluating whether the seller has complied with at least a portion of the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement, and wherein means for electronically providing a payment instruction if the seller has been evaluated to have complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement comprises means for electronically providing a payment instruction if the seller has been evaluated to have complied with the at least a portion of the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement.

26. (Currently Amended) A computerized method for facilitating transactions in goods or services, the method comprising:

allowing electronic procurement of a purchase order agreement between a seller and a buyer and relating to a transaction in one or more goods or services, and electronically storing the purchase order agreement;

evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure at at least one particular time, based upon buyer transaction activity information stored within the system, including evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over a period of time, wherein the means for evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over [[a]] the period of time comprises means for determining, for a first invoice upon which a first payment is required to be paid by the buyer, a time when the first payment is required to be paid by, according to one or more terms of at least one of the first invoice and a first purchase order agreement associated with the first invoice, and for adjusting the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure by an amount equal to the first payment by assuming the buyer will make the first payment by at least the time when the first payment is required to be paid by, wherein evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over the period of time further comprises determining whether the first payment is paid prior to the time when the first payment is required to be paid by and adjusting the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure by an amount equal to the first payment when the first payment is paid prior to the time when the first payment is required to be paid;

electronically communicating the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure anticipated to the seller and to the buyer;

receiving and storing electronic evidence that the seller has performed in connection with fulfilling the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement; and

electronically evaluating whether the seller has complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement;

electronically providing a payment instruction if the seller has been evaluated to have complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement;

receiving and storing electronic evidence that the buyer has made one or more payments in connection with fulfilling buyer's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement;

monitoring the assurability of the first transaction over the period of time based on the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure;

electronically indicating to the first buyer and the first seller a future time at which the first transaction would be assurable and would be fully assurable through the system based on the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure; and

~~means to present~~ presenting, on at least one of a computer of the seller and a computer of the buyer, a graphical display indicating the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure as a function of time and indicating the future time at which the first transaction would be assurable and would be fully assurable, wherein the graphical display is adjusted based on adjustments to the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure.

29. (Currently Amended) A computer usable medium storing program code which, when executed on a computerized device, causes the computerized device to execute a computerized method for facilitating transactions in goods or services, the method comprising:

allowing electronic procurement of a purchase order agreement between a seller and a buyer and relating to a transaction in one or more goods or services, and electronically storing the purchase order agreement;

evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure at at least one particular time, based upon buyer transaction activity information stored within the system, including evaluating the

buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over a period of time, wherein the means for evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over [[a]] the period of time comprises means for determining, for a first invoice upon which a first payment is required to be paid by the buyer, a time when the first payment is required to be paid by, according to one or more terms of at least one of the first invoice and a first purchase order agreement associated with the first invoice, and for adjusting the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure by an amount equal to the first payment by assuming the buyer will make the first payment by at least the time when the first payment is required to be paid by, wherein evaluating the buyer's cumulative credit exposure anticipated to exist over the period of time further comprises determining whether the first payment is paid prior to the time when the first payment is required to be paid by and adjusting the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure by an amount equal to the first payment when the first payment is paid prior to the time when the first payment is required to be paid;

receiving and storing electronic evidence that the seller has performed in connection with fulfilling the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement; and

electronically providing a payment instruction if the seller has been evaluated to have complied with the seller's obligations as defined by the purchase order agreement;

electronically indicating to the first buyer and the first seller a future time at which the first transaction would be assurable and would be fully assurable through the system based on the buyer's anticipated cumulative credit exposure; and
